

3rd pd. – 2 classes with Murdock

M Nov 23 (1-7) Murdock has substitute: Grammar sheet or Working presentation notes	T Nov 24 (1-4) WORKING PRESENTATIONS (all we have time for) --tbc next Monday if necessary --	W Nov 25 (5-7)	Th Nov 19 Fr Nov 20 Thanksgiving
M Nov 30 • Monologues or Pennies	T Dec 1 NO MURDOCK	W Dec 2 • Vocab. Quiz • Monologues or Pennies	Th Dec 3 NO MURDOCK	Fr Dec 4 FURLOUGH
M Dec 7	T Dec 8 NO MURDOCK	W Dec 9 Ehrenreich paper due	Th Dec 10 NO MURDOCK	Fr Dec 11 FURLOUGH
FINALS M Dec 14 (Study Hall, 1, 2)	FINALS T Dec 15 (Study Hall, 3, 4)	FINALS W Dec 16 (5, 6, 7)	FINALS Make-ups Th Dec 17 (1-7)	Fr Dec 11 FURLOUGH

Due next Monday, Nov. 30:

- Weekly Grammar excitement:
 - Read “Phrases” and KEEP in binder
 - Complete handout (exercise 37, page 166)
- Ehrenreich questions 12 & 13 ONLY!!!!!!
- Poem of the week: NO POEM OF THE WEEK THIS WEEK

Next Wed., Dec. 3:

- Vocab. Quiz: “Silence, Reticence,” “Harbinger,” “Monotony,” “Amazing”

Ehrenreich, question # 14: CHANGE

Old question: Due Mon., Nov. 30

Embed quotes | 1.5 pages, double-spaced

~~—After reading Nickel and Dimed, do you think that having a job — any job — is better than no job at all? Did this book make you feel angry? Better informed? Relieved that someone has finally described these experiences? Wanting to do something? Discuss your reaction to the book.~~

New question: Due Wed., Dec. 9

Embed, economically (as few words as you need to say what you need to say), at least 4 passages: 2.5 pages, double-spaced

After reading Nickel and Dimed, do you think that having a job — any job — is better than no job at all? Did this book make you feel angry? Better informed? Relieved that someone has finally described these experiences? Wanting to do something? Discuss your reaction to the book.

