

M Nov 30 • ... finish WORKING PRESENTATIONS • The Sacred	T Dec 1 NO MURDOCK	W Dec 2 • NO VOCAB QUIZ!!!! See 12-7 • DECEMBER BENCHMARK TESTING (and it COUNTS for credit!)	Th Dec 3 NO MURDOCK	Fr Dec 4 FURLOUGH
M Dec 7 • Vocab. Quiz: "Silence, Reticence," "Harbinger," "Monotony," "Amazing" • Debrief benchmark test	T Dec 8 NO MURDOCK	W Dec 9 • Ehrenreich paper due • Pre-finals work	Th Dec 10 NO MURDOCK	Fr Dec 11 FURLOUGH
FINALS M Dec 14 (Study Hall, 1, 2)	FINALS T Dec 15 (Study Hall, 3*, 4) Final: vocab. test and an in-class poetry essay	FINALS W Dec 16 (5, 6, 7)	FINALS Make-ups Th Dec 17 (1-7)	Fr Dec 11 FURLOUGH

Work for the week:

- Poetry essay due Monday, Dec. 7
- Ehrenreich essay due Wednesday, Dec. 9

Anti-procrastination/furlough/bell-schedule special:

5 pts. extra-credit to those who hand in this week's poetry paper by the end of this week, Thursday, 2:15 P.M., in person only (not in the office boxes or via email).

Ehrenreich Essay: question # 14: CHANGE

Old question: Due Mon., Nov. 30

Embed quotes | 1.5 pages, double spaced

~~After reading Nickel and Dimed, do you think that having a job — any job — is better than no job at all? Did this book make you feel angry? Better informed? Relieved that someone has finally described these experiences? Wanting to do something? Discuss your reaction to the book.~~

New question: Due Wed., Dec. 9

Embed, economically (as few words as you need to say what you need to say), at least 4 passages: 2.5 pages, double-spaced

After reading Nickel and Dimed, do you think that having a job — any job — is better than no job at all? Did this book make you feel angry? Better informed? Relieved that someone has finally described these experiences? Wanting to do something? Discuss your reaction to the book.