Work for the week:

Due: M, Nov. 30th (4th pd.); T, Dec. 1st (5th pd.)

- Finish annotating sports salaries packets

Future thinking: a project based on your independent reading is due on Monday, December 14th -- options will include (details on next week's planner):

Create (and perform?) a dramatic monologue for a character in your book.	Write a letter in which a character asks the author a series of questions and reflects on how the author feels about the way the character was created.	Create an "audio-book," reading portions of the book into a computer microphone, and write a reflection explaining why you read the passages you did (requires knowledge of, probably, GarageBand or something like it)	Create a soundtrack for your book.
